TTPod Series 2: Bulletin #1

Revisiting Series 1 and Looking Ahead to "New Beginnings"

With: Catherine Stone and Pete Ahmad

Recorded 26th March 2022

In this introductory bulletin to Series 2 of the TTPod, Cathy Stone assists podcast founder Pete Ahmad reflect on the:

- genesis of the podcast;
- legacy and highlights of Series 1;
- value of partnerships and community;
- reasons behind the 'break in transmission' and the second series; and
- transformation conversations we can anticipate and what else is coming in Series 2.

It's an engaging "reset" conversation and we hope it will reinspire you for what is to come or to inspire you to join our growing community of listeners.

The next chapter of the TTPod journey promises to develop further the themes and conversations adding to the significant archive of interview material available via your preferred podcast app / website.
